

The inspiration of OneBI originated from 1BI channel marker, a green buoy that has guided mariners for generations. Much like the vital navigational tool in boating, OneBI guides you home to where your heart belongs, on Block Island.

Because Some Places Just Feel Like Home

Block Island has a way of slowing time. It invites you to savor each moment — to indulge, to linger in conversation, and to raise a glass to the setting sun.

We built OneBI to honor that. To capture the elegance of yachting, the warmth of New England hospitality, and the coastal ease of a perfect summer night — all in one glass.
